The Math Curriculum is not included within the Noah Plan Curriculum. The NP Curriculum recommends Right Start Mathematics (which is a good curriculum). Stonebridge Academy now uses a different math curriculum though and it's through Purposeful Design Publications. Here is the link address to their website:

Principle Approach, Bible Principles: The Noah Plan

Instill a love of all types of literature in your students with this "biblical principle" plan. Slater's "research, reason, and relate" method advocates the reading of whole books, incorporating the entire curriculum---geography, history, science, math---in a whole life-learning approach.
