vii Introduction This is a practical manual of self-transformation. It takes the form of a working edition of the mythological poems of the ancient Norse Poetic Edda for modern "œpagans" who practice the magic and religion of the North. The poems of the Poetic Edda form the most complete and authentic body of surviving pre-Christian Germanic religious and magical lore.

The Shakespeare authorship question is the argument that someone other than William Shakespeare of Stratford-upon-Avon wrote the works attributed to him. Anti-Stratfordians "a collective term for adherents of the various alternative-authorship theories" believe that Shakespeare of Stratford was a front to shield the identity of the real author or authors, who for some reason did not want or ...
